Stockholm, May 27.

THE Count de St. Severin the Ambassador of France arrived here on a Day of Fasting and Prayer, appointed by his Swedish Majesty, when, as Luck would have it, his Excellency in passing to his Quarters, went by the Door of a Church where the Minister was preaching from Words of Jeremiah, Chap. II. ver. 25. With- out Foot from being unshod, and thy Throat from being unloosed; but thou saidst, There is no Hope. No, for I have Strangers, and after them will I go.—Tho' this Text given out by the Court to the Ministers and Word to preach from for the Day, yet the other perceiving, during his Sermon, that the Ambassador was just gone by, he took the Liberty to make a Digression from his Subject, and to his Audience, Gentlemen, There's your Ambassador come as last, your Great Man that you have so long'd for; you have now nothing to do, but to see whether he will answer your Expectation, or whether he will not bubble you. Next Day this Divine received Ambassadors to appear before the Consistory, and to an Account of the Satirical Epistle with which he embellish'd his Sermon; but he came off on- ly with a Reprimand, because as Things stand at present, it is not thought proper to exasperate the Friends of the Old Ministry. Since the Arrival of the said Ambassador the Talk is revived, that France will send a Squadron this Summer into the Baltick, much more than what was sent hither last Year. At the same Time there are Letters produced from London, which say positively, that if France sends a Fleet into our Harbours this Year, the King of Great Britain will send one to the Ports of Russia, under the Command of Admiral Stuart.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Berborne, June 2. On Thursday last, about 11 o' clock in the Forenoon, as a Gentleman and a Servant on Horseback, and two Ladies in a Chaise were com- ing from Sarum to this Place, they were attack'd about the Middle of White-sheer, by a strong clumsy Fellow about 6 Foot high, who presented a Pistol at the Ladies and demanded their Money; but the Gen- tleman telling him they were both with Child and desiring him not to frighten them, he did not behave very roughly, only took what Money they had about them, and afterwards demanded the Servant's Horse to carry him up White-sheer, saying, if they would send him up after him he would deliver the Horse as soon as he got to the Top of the Hill, and then made the best Speed he could: No sooner was he got upon the Plain but he met Mr. Drake of Wellington and a Lady upon single Horses, and attack'd them and took away their Money: Mr. Drake being exceedingly well mounted, the Fellow chang'd Horses with him, telling him he would leave it at the Hutt, and after taking off Mr. Drake's Gambadoes (which he said he did not know what to do with) and putting on the Stirrups belonging to the other Horse, he rode off with the utmost Expedition towards Sarum. By this time the Servant belonging to the Chaise was come up for the Horse, but Mr. Drake was permitted to ride him to Shafton, where he hired another to proceed on his Journey.

Lee 25 Leagues to the Leeward, bound as he imagines to Porto Bello; where, it is to be hoped, he will demolish the Castle of Chagra, and leave a free Passage there for Trade. Goods are pretty much wanted in Jamaica, and exceeding scarce at Porto Bello, where Money is very plenty."

From Charles Town in South Carolina, April 9th, they write, that they were going against St. Augustine in good Earnest; that a Regiment raised at the Expense of that Province was to join the Georgians, and a large Body of Indians under General Oglethorpe, to attack it by Land, while 5 Men of War then there block'd them up by Sea, and were to land Men to assist if Occasion requir'd, and thus prepar'd they flatter'd themselves with an easy Conquest. For all wandering Pains in any Part soever, which some Persons the Forerunners of a fixed Rheumatism, the Gout (mistaken many times under the Notion of tick Ailments) this famous Medicine has not its fellowing wrought Wonders in these Cases on great Noble People, who, before taking it, could neither sit, stand, at Ease; but were in intolerable Pain Night and Day, taking less than half a Bottle, were absolutely freed from present Pain, and, by a short Continuance of the recovered to perfect Health again.

As for any Belchings or Hiccups, proceeding from or, in short, in any Case of Wind, it may be depended on the best, safest, most expeditious, and most sovereign ever yet known.

The Princely beautifying LOTION.
Whose INIMITABLE VIRTUES and TRANSCENDENT EXCELLENCIES have gained it so much Reputation, that envious Imitators endeavour, tho' in vain, to counterfeit it.

It beautifies the Face, Neck, and Hands to the utmost perfection, and is in the greatest Esteem amongst Ladies for the first Quality. No Words can sufficiently express its Uses; for it is not of the Nature of Paint, which gives an unnatural Gloss on the Skin; but is a Remedy for its Use, really gives a Lustre to the most beautiful, being the fine Features of the Face, and is so safe, that the least Grain of Mercury in it, that it may be taken and it smelled to, is really good against Vapours.

It infallibly kills Worms in the Face, takes away Spots, Wrinkles, Pits, or Marks of the Small-Pox, and cures any Defects in the Face, giving a charming Lustre and fine Air to the Features, to Admiration.

As for such Persons as are of a swarthy Complexion, bled with any disagreeable Redness, Roughness, Heats, or the like, it is not to be parallel'd; for it is ately smooths, clears, plumps, nourishes, and whitenes to the last Degree, and makes those Persons who before were haggard and old, to look young, beautiful, and fair; short, it far exceeds any thing that was ever yet made publick, for clearing and beautifying the Skin.
